Request for Proposals & Application
Youth Development and Culture Grant Program
DUE FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2021

I. INTRODUCTION

The State of Alaska, Department of Health and Social Services (DHSS), Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) Delinquency Prevention CFDA #16.540 is pending award funding to the Rural Alaska Community Action Program, Inc. (RurAL CAP) award #609-237-22001 to issue sub-award grants to rural, Alaska Native communities with the purpose of reducing the disproportionate number of minority youth who come into contact with the juvenile justice system. RurAL CAP is requesting proposals from eligible applicants to provide Division of Juvenile Justice Formula Title II services for the State of Alaska. Program Services are authorized under AS 47.14.010(6) General Powers of Department over Juvenile Institutions; AS 47.05.010(7) Duties of Department; and 7 AAC 78 (Grant Programs). Access State of Alaska statutes and regulations at <http://www.law.state.ak.us/doclibrary/doclib.html>.

The purpose of the Youth Development and Culture Grant Program is to reduce the disproportionate number of minority youth who come into contact with the juvenile justice system. Alaska Natives make up approximately 15% of youth ages 12-17 in Alaska while making up approximately 30% of these youth referred to the Division of Juvenile Justice each year. The DJJ recognizes the need to collaborate and team with agencies that have the cultural knowledge, community connections and expertise to enhance and strengthen its work with Alaska Native youth, families and communities. The Youth Development and Culture Grant Program targets both a reduction in the disproportionate contact Alaska Native youth have with the juvenile justice system in Alaska, and an increase in the ability of the Alaska Native communities ultimately funded through this program to better develop and manage DHSS grant programs.

Proposals must demonstrate a thorough understanding of the grant program goals and outcomes; and proposed projects must meet or exceed anticipated minimums described in this RFP. Proposals must include a description of proposed activities that support the goals and outcomes to be employed in the project. The applicant must also include a timeline for the project.

RurAL CAP is soliciting proposals for community projects that are innovative and implement either culture activities/camps or youth leadership development.

PROJECT DESCRIPTIONS

There are many projects that could be implemented with this funding. In order to have a stronger impact on the youth that participate, consider applying for funding for a series of cultural and youth leadership activities. Some examples of eligible projects to be awarded through this competition have included:

- A series of subsistence camping trips, including recruiting participants, gathering supplies, and implementing activities such as taking the youth silver salmon fishing and inviting an Elder to help teach how to prepare them for subsistence. Other activities might include teaching basic camping skills, moose calling, tracking, fly fishing, or conducting a Spirit Camp focused on connecting youth to cultural activities, the outdoors or winter survival skills. Activities could include canoe races, fishing, cooking, hiking, arts and crafts like beading, and games. Elders and adults can provide guidance, stories, and teachings. A cultural identity project to help youth work with the community and Elders. The youth can interview Elders and other community members, then write the stories and take pictures. Through this project, the youth will learn about their ancestors as well as basic life skills. Other innovative projects were building smoke racks or doghouses, drying fish or gathering subsistence foods, including animals or greens.
- Youth Leadership training can include bringing a national or statewide trainer to your community to work with youth. Also, funds for youth can be used to develop leadership skills through conferences within the state.

Successful project proposals should also include a commitment to document the project in a way that can be shared and replicated. Assistance in capturing the project will be available from RurAL CAP staff. Examples of how projects may be shared with other communities include producing brochures, videos, slide shows, hand-outs, web-based presentations, or other documentation of, the steps that were taken, the lessons learned, the resources and supplies needed to implement a similar project and the changes that occurred.
